

Meet Wendy Kirkland

How did an award-winning artist and sculptor who owned an eclectic gift shop in Historic Biltmore Village, end up an option guru? Let's see...

In 2004 a freak flood destroyed the retail business Wendy and her husband had poured every bit of their time and money into for more than 25 years.

Since they had no flood insurance, they lost everything... and were in real trouble. Fortunately, a friend introduced Wendy to options trading.

Desperate to save her family from financial ruin, Wendy started reading books, watching financial news, and taking courses... struggling with the same sort of ups and downs as most new traders.

Then one day she stumbled upon a miraculous discovery. By combining two common indicators into one, she created a hybrid indicator that's nearly 100% infallible!

Practically overnight Wendy was making more money trading than she and Jack had ever made in their store!

Inspired to help other women enjoy the financial security she had found, Wendy started giving online classes. And in 2009 she co-authored a book entitled: "Option Trading In Your Spare Time—A Guide to Financial Independence for Women".

"I feel I was given a second chance," Wendy said. "So I felt I owed it to society to give back, and help others. And go make a difference"

And that's exactly what she's done... in spades!

Get this, undeterred by the title and pretty pink cover of her first book, even more men than women ended up buying it!

When TradeWins Publishing heard about Wendy's tremendous wealth-building success, they called her right away... which led to 6 more books, trading courses, newsletters, and advisory services.

Written about in Money Magazine, Small Business Opportunities Magazine, and Investor's Business Daily... Wendy is quoted as saying : "I LOVE that my books have helped so many people achieve financial independence through trading, just like I had."

But the greatest demonstration of Wendy's commitment to putting financial security within easy reach of anyone willing to try is Wendy's Millionaire Maker Alliance... dedicated to turning ordinary men & women into millionaires. And it's working!
